VCU School of Nursing 125th Anniversary Events

The VCU School of Nursing is celebrating its 125th anniversary with a variety of internal and external activities.
Below are several external events.

Saturday, April 21, 2018

VCU School of Nursing kicked off its 125 Campaign during Reunion Weekend. The school encourages faculty, staff, alumni and friends to contribute to the VCU School of Nursing 125th Anniversary Scholarship, with a goal of raising $125,000. Donors who contribute $1,000 or in 2018 more will have their names listed on a commemorative plaque. To donate, visit www.support.vcu.edu/give/nursing.

On Saturday at Reunion Weekend, a 125th Birthday Celebration was held in Younger Auditorium.

Monday, Sept. 10

VCU School of Nursing’s Council for Community Collaboration, in partnership with the American Red Cross and Be the Match, is hosting a combined blood donation and bone marrow registration drive from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. in the Student Lounge. The event also includes a short talk at noon about bone marrow registration. For more information, contact Ethlyn McQueen-Gibson, DNP, at (804) 828-9291.
